

Enjoy the Flood Lyrics/Chords

Writer: Bobby Noble

Album: naked

A few notes:

This lyrics/chords chart is to give you a basic idea of the words and harmonic outline. There's a lot going on in the studio recording that is not expressed below. There are bass riffs, passing tones, different chord voicings, etc in this song that are great but aren't necessarily critical to your interpretation.

Use the chart while listening to the song to get the complete picture.

The entire song uses one series of chord changes until the key change, and even those are the same changes up a whole step. I've typed them out once instead of cluttering the lyrics with them.

Eflat9 is an E dominant chord with an F as a color tone inside the voicing.

If you're using this chart for my naked cover contest remember to spice it up with your own take on things (rhythm, harmony, melody, phrasing, etc)- there are no rules limiting your creativity :D <3

Chord Changes (whole song until key change):

(Am7 Csus2 FMAJ7 Eflat9 :||)

Chorus 1:

Like a waterfall pouring through every part of what makes you you

A dance you just can't control when a rhythm uplifts your soul

In that moment you lose your mind, and let joy fill you up inside

An anchor just weighs you down, jump overboard enjoy the flood

Sax interlude:

4 bars

Verse 1:

Lately I'm up and down, my mood swings round and round I

Feel like I'm tumbling down, but grace keeps me floating above it all

Help me remember all the good things, teach me to let go of each tragedy,

lead me to accept the rush as it's happening

Chorus 2:

Like a waterfall pouring through every part of what makes you you
A dance you just can't control when a rhythm uplifts your soul
In that moment you lose your mind, and let joy fill you up inside
An anchor just weighs you down, jump overboard enjoy the flood

Sax Interlude:

4 bars

Verse 2:

If your legs cannot stand the motion, staying still doesn't seem to jive
Let your body tip towards the notion, that there's never a need to hide

Chorus 3:

From the waterfall pouring through every part of what makes you you
A dance you just can't control when a rhythm uplifts your soul
In that moment you lose your mind, and let joy fill you up inside
An anchor just weighs you down, jump overboard enjoy the flood

Guitar Solo

8 bars

KEY CHANGE to Bm

(Bm7 Dsus2 GMAJ7 F#flat9 :||)

Chorus 4:

Like a waterfall pouring through every part of what makes you you
A dance you just can't control when a rhythm uplifts your soul
In that moment you lose your mind, and let joy fill you up inside
An anchor just weighs you down, jump overboard enjoy the flood

Chorus 5 (intense):

Like a waterfall pouring through every part of what makes you you
A dance you just can't control when a rhythm uplifts your soul
In that moment you lose your mind, and let joy fill you up inside
An anchor just weighs you down, jump overboard enjoy the flood
